If your family situation has changed significantly since completing the 2019-2020 Free Application for Federal Student Aid Form (FAFSA), you may request these changes be taken into consideration by providing additional information. Information from this form, the student file, and supporting documentation will be used to determine if eligibility for financial aid can be recalculated using this new information. Submitting this form does not guarantee additional aid. Wofford College complies with the guidelines of the U.S. Department of Education when determining eligibility. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our office.

The 2019-2020 FAFSA uses financial tax forms from the 2017 tax year to assess a family’s ability to pay. However, your family situation may have changed or will change in 2017, 2018, or 2019.

For which year did this special condition apply?

___ 2017 ___ 2018 ___ 2019 ___ 2020

Please submit all documentation for each year selected

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION FOR ALL APPLICABLE CIRCUMSTANCES:

1. A written statement explaining the special condition.

Step 3: Reason for Special Condition

Instructions: Complete the appropriate condition(s) under which you are requesting a re-evaluation of financial aid eligibility for the 2019-2020 academic year. Attach all requested documents listed above and listed under each section. Only one written statement explaining the special condition(s) is required if you complete more than one section.

A. Loss of employment or reduction of income in my household – It is Wofford’s policy that the parent be without a job for at least three months before a review will be completed. This allows time for any severance, unemployment benefits, or new employment to take place to know the exact affect it may have on a family.

For families who experience volatile income from year to year, based on commission sales or other economic conditions, a three year average is calculated and the first two pages of your last three years of tax returns is required.

Who experienced the loss or reduction in income?

_____ Father/Stepfather  _____ Mother/Stepmother  _____ Student/Spouse

Effective Date: ________________

Reason for loss or reduction:

_____ Job Change  _____ Reduced Overtime  _____ Retirement  _____ Termination by employer

_____ Other: ______________________________________________________

Projected household income for the year:

- Attach a copy of the termination letter or letter from former employer (on business letterhead) indicating when separation or change of hours occurred and any severance pay that is due to you.
- Attach a copy of any unemployment benefits that will be received.
- Attach a copy of last pay stub.

B. Loss of untaxed income (i.e. child support, social security benefits, housing allowance, etc.)

Name of income that was loss: ___________________________ Date of change: ________________

Projected household income for the year: ___________________________

- Attach documentation of loss in untaxed income.
C. Parent/Spouse separation, divorce, or death - It is Wofford’s policy that the parents be separated for at least six months before a review will be completed. This allows time for any separation agreements or separation of income and responsibilities to take place to know the exact affect it may have on a family. The separation must be with intent to divorce. Separation without intent to divorce will not be taken into consideration.

For parent’s separation or divorce:

Date of separation or divorce: ___________ With which parent do you live? ___ Father  ___ Mother

- Attach a copy of separation agreement, formal or informal.
- Attach a copy of the divorce decree or evidence of filed divorce proceedings per attorney or court.

For death of a parent/spouse:

Date of death: ________________ (month/year) Surviving parent:  _____ Father     _____ Mother

- Attach a copy of the death certificate.

D. Unusually high medical expenses – The FAFSA already considers an 11% income protection allowance on the parent(s) Adjusted Gross Income (AGI). To make any significant difference on the FAFSA, the medical expenses must significantly exceed 11% of the AGI or the parent/student must have filed a Schedule A. Please note: insurance statements will not be considered; only receipts or bank/credit card statements showing the amount paid out-of-pocket.

What is the total amount of expenses paid out-of-pocket in the year selected that was NOT covered or reimbursed by insurance: $ __________________

- Attach proof of out-of-pocket expenses (i.e. receipts, copies of checks, doctor’s records, etc.)
- Attach copy of Schedule A from tax return

---

E. One-time income (i.e. rollover of IRA to Roth IRA) – It is Wofford’s policy that this is truly a one-time income occurrence. Unguaranteed bonuses or similar income increases will not be considered until the date of receipt has past and if significantly less than previous years, (see Section A). Also, retirement that is withdrawn each year to pay for college or living expenses will not be considered.

Who received the one-time income?  ___ Father/Stepfather  ___ Mother/Stepmother  ___ Student/Spouse

Source of one-time income: ____________________________

- Attach statement or proof of one-time income
F. Elementary or secondary school tuition for siblings – The Department of Education considers private education in elementary or secondary school to be a family choice that is not considered for special conditions. It is Wofford’s policy that only those families with NO choice be considered for private education tuition evaluation (i.e. sibling is expelled and cannot return to public school, severe disability not covered in public school) AND the requirement provides a hardship on the family.

In a written statement, please provide which sibling(s) attend a private elementary or secondary school along with the reason for attendance.

Public school for which student(s) is zoned to attend: _______________________________

What is the total annual out-of-pocket tuition amount? $_____________________

- Attach letter from school stating amount of tuition

G. Other unusual or unexpected expenses - Unusual or unexpected expenses are such that apply explicitly to the student and not conditions that exist for a whole class of students. These expenses do NOT include recurring costs such as vacations, tithing, and standard living expenses (related to utilities, credit card debt, children’s allowances, etc.).

Total Amount of unusual or unexpected expenses? $_________________________

- Attach documentation and proof of expenses

Step 4: Certification
