A Note from Thom

Greetings, Terrier parents, and a special welcome to all of our first-year parents. I'm Thom Henson, director of parent engagement at Wofford College. As we approach a new academic year, it is my desire to serve as a bridge between parents and Wofford, making sure that parents are informed and are aware of the many ways they can engage with and give back to the college. Click here to visit the Wofford Parents webpage and learn more about my role and opportunities for parent engagement at Wofford.

You will receive this e-newsletter the first Tuesday of each month. I hope you will read it each month to stay informed about what is happening at Wofford and to learn more about programs, resources and opportunities available to you and your student. Speaking of opportunities, I hope you'll make plans to visit campus for Family Weekend, Oct. 26-27, 2018. Click here for more information as it becomes available.

Enjoy the rest of your summer!

Thom Henson, Director of Parent Engagement

A New Face in The Space

The staff in The Space in the Mungo Center are excited to introduce Dr. LaTasha (Tasha) Smith-Tyus as the new career services director. Tasha most recently served as the manager of the Career Center Satellite Office within the College of Communication and Information Sciences at the University of Alabama. Tasha, a three-time graduate of The University of Alabama, has provided career and professional development services to the 3,000+ current students and alumni of the College of Communication and has overseen the university's employer development programming initiatives and collaborative partnerships. She is actively involved in her community and has a strong passion for student success. Please help us welcome Tasha to the Wofford family!
