

Where thought leads.

Adjunct in International Affairs

The Department of Government and International Affairs at Wofford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina, invites applications for an adjunct position for Spring 2025.

EXPECTATIONS

Teaching excellence is a priority at Wofford College. Competitive candidates will have teaching experience. The person chosen for this position will teach in-person one section of introduction to international relations. This is an ideal position for an ABD candidate interested in obtaining more extensive teaching experience to prepare for a career in academia, especially in a liberal arts setting.

QUALIFICATIONS

A master's degree in political science or a closely related field. Preference will be given to those who have experience teaching at the college level.

APPLICATION

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Application materials should be emailed to GovIntlAffairs@wofford.edu. The application should include the following:

- A. A letter of application that discusses the candidate's teaching philosophy and interest in teaching at a residential liberal arts college.
- B. A curriculum vitae.
- C. Contact information for 2 professional references.
- D. Prior teaching evaluations (if available).

ABOUT WOFFORD COLLEGE

Wofford College is a place where thought leads, where ideas are celebrated and problem solving is expected. Wofford invites applicants who are focused on student success and excited to join a community committed to preparing thought leaders.

Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, South Carolina. A Phi Beta Kappa college (chartered in 1940), Wofford more than 80 academic majors, minors and programs to a student body of 1,815 undergraduates. Nationally known for the strength of its academic program, outstanding faculty, experiential learning opportunities and successful and supportive graduates, Wofford is recognized consistently as a “best value” and for accessibility for low- and middle-income students. To learn more, visit wofford.edu.

The Department of Government and International Affairs is a growing department with six full-time tenure-track faculty and over a hundred majors. We cover a broad scope of subject matter with an intellectually diverse faculty.

EEO STATEMENT

Wofford College values diversity within our students, faculty and staff and strives to recruit, develop and retain the most talented people. Wofford College does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, transgender status, gender identity, age, national origin, disability, veteran status or any other legally protected status in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. For information about Wofford’s Title IX compliance, visit wofford.edu/administration/title-ix.

It is the policy of Wofford College to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities for employment. If you require any accommodations to participate in any part of the hiring process, please contact HumanResources@Wofford.edu.

A background check will be conducted for finalist candidates. Employment is contingent upon completion of a successful background check and establishment of identity and verification of employment eligibility as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.